Season Length

Our season begins on January 4, 2016 and runs through March 27, 2016.

Game Play

Our season allows for approximately 10 weeks of game play (one game per week, per team), depending on how playoffs are handled. Each Division (grade level) is assigned a set of game slots per week, and they are scheduled in a round robin fashion throughout the 10 weeks of play. Some divisions have a BYE week.

Playoffs

Each division is allotted 2 weeks for playoffs, depending on the playoff format. Playoff brackets will be posted at the end of the season, prior to playoff games, on the NBL website.

Schedules

Exact schedules are posted in December and are available on the SCHEDULES tab of the NBL website.

Standings

Each week during season, coaches submit game scores to a Division Score Keeper. Once entered on a weekly basis, team standings can be tracked on the STANDINGS tab of the NBL website.
