  - a. Parents asked several questions regarding the new sexual education curriculum. Questions included:
    - When will the curriculum be taught: Kurz said that for departmentalized grades it will occur during science class. For younger grades, gym.
    - When will it begin: Kurz and King said that the instruction will likely be in March.
    - Is the curriculum common across the CPS schools: King noted that the curriculum is very scripted and will be common across CPS schools.
    - Is bullying included: Barta said that each section has a lesson plan on bullying.
8. Correspondence: None
9. Reports
  - a. Chairperson: None
  - b. Principal: Congratulated the staff, parents, students on the science and art fairs. She mentioned the new arts grant that will incorporate dance into the school program. Crespo said it will likely fit into the physical education program. She and Kurz are in discussions on how to best address that.
  - c. Committees
    - Communications: Versace said that the committee will look for ways to incorporate the sexual education curriculum on the website.

- Budget: Siguenza said that the committee and staff need to reconcile the budget before making a more thorough presentation. Those monies include dollars allocated by CPS after the school year began and funds originally set aside by the LSC. Crespo and the administration will use winter break to determine where the money should be allocated and make a present that at the January meeting.
- CIWP: Foster-Rice: No update from the last LSC meeting. Intention is to have a public forum on CIWP in February or March.
- PPLC: Will present during executive session on principal evaluation.
- Principal Evaluation: Weinstock noted that the committee is in the midst of the principal evaluation process and will be going into executive session to hear teacher feedback.
